Bad Symptoms.

The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy full feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weaknesses and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not result fatally.

No medicine extant has such a long and numerous record of cures in such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. No medicine has such a strong professional indorsement of each of its several ingredients—worth more than any number of ordinary non-professional testimonials. The very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath.

In any condition of the female system, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of this "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Women suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Doctor Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address as above.

PASTOR ATTACKS BIBLE.

Staunch church members of Bayonne, N. J., awoke yesterday morning after a night of restlessness following a sermon by Rev. William H. Babcock, pastor of the First Reformed Church, one of the largest in the town.

The minister had said he would ask the authorities of his church for "permission to preach the truth for two years as an experiment." He declared that had he known what he was doing when he entered the ministry he would not have gone into it.

Dr. Babcock made a few perfunctory remarks and then suddenly launched forth in an attack upon the Bible and upon both the Protestant and Catholic churches. He said he had studied science and philosophy, geology, biology, anthropology and metaphysics and he had reached the conclusion that the Bible "was not a solid chunk of truth. Maintaining that the description of the creation of the earth, as found in Genesis, was in conflict with geology and biology he declared that he must accept the latter.

"I ask for freedom to preach the truth," he continued. "If granted I will apply to the classis for special dispensation for two years for experimental work and I will lay aside all present forms and systems.

"If I had known as much about the ministry 20 years ago as I do today I never would have put my head in the noose, but now that it is there I will fight for freedom."

WORK OF NIGHT RIDERS.

Two hundred masked night riders visited Dycusburg, Ky., early yesterday morning, burned Bennett Brothers' tobacco warehouse and distillery, and shot up the home of William Groves, foreman of the tobacco factory, driving him from the building, when he was captured and whipped almost to death.

Henry Bennett, a member of the firm of Bennett Brothers, was taken from his home, tied to a tree and severely whipped. He was left bound to the tree. Bennett Brothers operate an independent factory, and have been buying tobacco from non-association growers, it is charged. The warehouse burned represents a loss of $40,000.

When the mob called at Mr. Groves' house they requested him to come out. He declined to do so, and shooting at once began. Mr. Groves was in a room with his wife and children, and as the bullets began to fly through the windows he deemed it best to come out in order to save the lives of his family.

J. B. Tyler, a prominent attorney, of Clarksville, Tenn., received a letter warning him to leave the country. The letter said that if he and his family did not leave within two weeks his property would be burned and he would be murdered. The letter was signed "Night Riders."

The best remedy known today for all stomach troubles is Kodol, which is guaranteed to give prompt relief. It is a natural digestant, it digests what you eat, it is pleasant to take. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

THRILLING ESCAPE.

Fire, supposed to have been caused by an explosion, broke out yesterday on the seventh floor of the Wolf Building, 91 Dearborn street, Chicago. In a few minutes the fire was general on the seventh and eighth floors. For a time it was feared that some of the people working on the eighth floor had been trapped by the flames, and within a half hour after the fire started it was impossible to say whether or not all of them had escaped.

Carl Szostrom and V. A. G. Murrell, who occupied offices on the eighth floor of the building, were caught by the flames and were unable to reach the elevators or the stairways. They tied a number of ladders, used by the janitors of the buildings, together and threw them across a 80-foot alley to the building east of the Wolff Building. Then, with another man, they crossed the ladders to the roof of the other building and escaded. The third man, who was heavy, caused the ladders to bend and for a time it was thought that he would break them and fall to the alley, eight stories below. Once he slipped and would have fallen, but for the assistance given by his two companions.

SUNK BY A STEAMER.

Plunging through white tipped swells in the face of a piping and frosty northwester, the Old Dominion liner Jefferson, which arrived at New York Monday night from Norfolk, cut down the old three master centerboard schooner Emelie E. Birdsall, three hours before sunrise yesterday off the upper Virginia coast. The Birdsall formerly traded at this port. Mate Herbert M. Robinson, of Machiasport, Me., and two of the crew of the schooner lost their lives. Capt. Joseph L. Rietta and the three other survivors owe their salvation largely to the persistent pluck of Second Officer Frederick Bange, of the Jefferson, who spent more than an hour in the freezing sea and on the main deck of the half-submerged vessel. The Jefferson was in in charge of the second officer, who frankly declares he did not see the schooner until he was so close abroad it was impossible to avoid collision.

Kodol is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids with natural digestants and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. Each dose will digest more than 3,000 grains of good food. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEB. 5, 1908.

SPEAKER CANNON and Mr. Payne, chairman of the ways and means committee of the House, tossed in the air yesterday afternoon the proposition to create a tariff commission of five experts, which is advanced in the Beveridge bill. Mr. Payne said there "might" be revision next winter, but every one knows what "next winter" means with high tariff republicans. A delegation is in Washington, representing, through its officers, the National Manufacturers' Association, the National Grange, the National Live Stock Association and other importation commercial organizations, assuming to speak for two million voters. In the business world they are of the greatest consequence, and they came to Washington under the impression that their commercial importance would make what they had to say worth while. Now they know better. Before Congress met yesterday, a few of the chosen ones received an intimation of what was to follow. Representative Madden, of Illinois, led a small party of the Illinois contingent to the home of the Speaker. After the usual formalities, Mr. Cannon remarked: "Now, there is no use of four-flushing between us. You can't get anywhere with this proposition." However, the Speaker promised that Chairman Payne, who he said "knows more about the tariff question than all of you put together," should hear what they had to say. At the hearing late in the afternoon the delegates told why they wanted a commission. Speaker Cannon made a long reply, showing from his standpoint how impossible it was to get the subject up for consideration in Congress now, and why the House could not abandon its prerogative of initiating tariff legislation. Mr. Payne made one of his patronizing speeches, telling how the representatives, coming direct from the people, could be depended upon to revise the tariff when the country demanded it and in the way the country demanded it. This is the same old story that has been told by the republicans for years past and the people might just as well understand at once that there will be no tariff revision as long as the republicans are in the majority in Congress.

ANARCHISTIC VENOM is causing the police department of Chicago no little apprehension. The cruel murder of the King and Crown Prince of Portugal has caused great rejoicing among what are known as the "reds" of that city. At a meeting Sunday night E. M. McIntosh it reported as having said:

I am with the mob. I would like to go out right now with the mob behind and kill every policeman in the street and then throw their bodies into the lake like so many dead fish. I am hungry. I could go out and rob every store and kill right and left. I have more respect for the robber than for the unemployed. The robber gets it, while the unemployed has not sense enough to get it. I sympathize with the Queen of Portugal. I am sorry she did not meet the fate of her despotic husband. My own mother was a liar when she taught me to be honest and not to steal and rob."

Lucy Parsons is as rabid as ever, and says she is ready to die on a scaffold as did her husband years ago. The utterances given above need no comment.

ROOSEVELTISM has for some time been an epidemic among a certain class. It is now affecting the ministry. So far, however, the cases are sporadic and may yield to prompt treatment. Rev. Amzi C. Dixon, pastor of Moody Church, one of the largest congregations in Chicago, compares, in an interview, President Roosevelt to the prophet Isaiah, crying the nation's sins. At a prayer meeting Monday night Rev. Dr. Dixon told an audience of 1,000 that the President's latest message to Congress was one of the greatest sermons ever written. Dr. Dixon likened the President to John the Baptist, as the precursor of a new and purer life for the individual, the nation and the world.

MR. GARFIELD, Secretary of the Interior, in his annual report, made public on Monday, urgently recommends the reclamation of the countless acres of swamp lands in the central and eastern sections of the country. He holds this to be fully as important as the matter of irrigation of the arid lands of the West. There are about 78,000,000 acres of swamp lands in the central and southeastern States and it is feasible to drain much of this land and provide homes for thousands of families at a comparatively small cost. Then, too, the draining of these swamp lands would greatly improve the health conditions in their respective vicinities.

MISS PHOEBE COUSINS, a former temperance advocate, told the Senate subcommittee on judiciary at Washington on Saturday that prohibition was a fraud and a failure. Miss Cousins has had opportunities to study the question and has at last reached the conclusion arrived at by so many others who have given the temperance cause their attention.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., February 5.

The standpatters played a trick on the tariff revisionists at the White House today. According to the assertions of the revisionists, the men who do not want the tariff joggled, edged their way into the President's office and robbed them of an hour of their rightful time. Instead of getting into the presidential presence at 11 they did not secure admittance until after twelve. When they did not get in they were mad clear through. The tariff people were in conference with the President for about an hour and urged him to send a special message to Congress advocating a tariff commission.

Only those born within the arctic circle are humming "put me off at Buffallo," for that city is the coldest in the United States today. It was 4 degrees below zero most of the night and during the entire 24 hour period the thermometer rose to only 4 degrees above. Portland, Me., has second honors with 2 degrees below. Most of the cities in the north and east are experiencing temperatures in the vicinity of the zero mark.

The 35th coast artillery, stationed at Fortress Monroe, has been ordered to the Philippines. It will sail from San Francisco April 6. The company goes as a reinforcement of the coast artillery in the islands, there not being sufficient soldiers of that branch of the service there now to man the new fortifications.

In connection with the International Congress on tuberculosis to be held in Washington the Smithsonian Institution has decided to offer a prize of $1,500 for the best treatise that may be submitted on "the relation of atmospheric air to tuberculosis." The prize will be awarded by a committee appointed by the secretary of the institution in conjunction with the officers of the International Congress.

Senator Beveridge was given an ovation in the Senate this afternoon. A speech which he delivered in advocacy of the creation of a tariff commission was heard by a crowded chamber and overflowing galleries. A delegation of prominent manufacturers of the country headed by J. W. Van Cleave, of St. Louis, President of the National Association of Manufacturers, here urging enactment of the Beveridge bill, occupied a prominent position in the public gallery in seats previously reserved for them, an unusual custom in the Senate and one considered an especial mark of distinction.

There is much striving at the War Department today to solve the mystery that seems to enshourd a remarkable cross country riding contest between President Roosevelt and Gen. J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff. The ride took place yesterday when the two strenuous devotees of horseback riding set out for the test but which won out is the mystery that is exciting the attention of the department.

Sixtieth Congress.

Washington, Feb. 5.

SENATE.

Senator Stone thinks that fifteen years after the date of the treaty of Paris, by which the United States secured possession of the Philippines, is enough in which to allow the people of those islands to prepare themselves for self-government. He, therefore, today, introduced in the Senate a resolution requesting the President on the 10th of December, 1913, to deliver the control and possession of the islands to the authorities representing the people thereof and to withdraw the army and navy of the United States, provided that suitable coaling and naval stations are retained. The resolution also requests the opening of negotiations with other nations to secure an agreement for the neutralization of the Philippines, and the recognition of their independence.

Senator Culberson gave notice in the Senate today that he would tomorrow urge consideration of a resolution now on the table, asking the Secretary of the Treasury whether he knew that in the fall of 1907 New York bankers refused to honor drafts on reserve by banks outside of that city.

Senator Beveridge addressed the Senate in advocacy of the creation of a commission to revise the tariff.

Mr. Beveridge arraigned the existing Dingley schedules and presented facts to support his assertion that America's tariff must be adapted to trade needs and that common sense must be applied if this country is to succeed in the world-wide contest for commerce.

He declared this country must have more foreign trade, "American producers demand," he said, "that the doors of other nations that are open to their rivals no longer be closed to them."

HOUSE

The members of the House had a little diversion today. They were "inspecting" the new delegates from the Philippines, who took their seats in the House. Mr. Nicholas Longworth was the first representative to welcome them.

The debate in the House resulting from the recent presidential message culminated today in an important speech by Mr. Payne, of New York, republican floor leader.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 5.—After a show of firmness in the early trading when prices made moderate gains, the market became weak under the lead of American Smelting and at the end of the first hour nearly everything on the list showed irregular losses. The railroad group was well held for a time.

The market continued heavy during the last half of the forenoon with prices falling under moderate pressure in many of the issues that have been most active in the recent trading. At midday the market was generally dull and heavy.

A bill prohibiting gambling on horse races was sent to the District of Columbia Commissioners on Monday by the House District committee. It prohibits any person or corporation within the limits of the District to bet, gamble or make books or pool on the results of any trotting or running race of horses, or to permit the same to be done on their premises, under the penalty of a fine or imprisonment.

After brooding over the killing of a negro in the discharge of his duty last Christmas day until his mind is believed to have become temporarily dethroned, and coupled with a dream he had a few nights ago in which he saw the negro he killed, Chief of Police J. E. Warden, of Graham, yesterday blew out his brains with a revolver. Since the dream, in which he said he saw Preston, he had been melancholic. He leaves a wife and four children.

Rhea, of Bristol, continued on the stand in his own defense last night at the hearing before the joint legislative committee on confirmation investigating charges made against Rhea by Senator Noel, of Lee, in connection with Rhea's appointment to the corporation commission. The Manassas Business League held a meeting last night. The normal school committee recently returned from Richmond reported that the offer of Manassas was largely in excess of Harrisonburg and all other towns. Citizens from other districts of the county expressed a desire to have their districts bonded to assist Manassas in the fight for the normal under special act of the Legislature approved March 2, 1904. The league voted to instruct their senator and delegates to increase the offer of Manassas to $50,000, provided the State appropriates a like amount.

GOVERNOR WARNED.

Gov. Glenn has been warned by a friend at Bluefield, W. Va., that a plot has been formed to assassinate him. He writes the governor that a man, whose name is not given, a few days ago, at the Elk's Club, at Bluefield, declared that Glenn was a marked man, and offered to bet $1,000 against $100 that he would be killed within sixty days.

The man with the money asserted that the governor's activity against the liquor interests has aroused the enmity of certain persons who were determined to put Glenn out of the way.

The governor's Bluefield friend immediately wired a warning to Glenn, and followed the message with details by mail. The governor is paying no attention to the threat, and is attending to his business affairs without unusual precaution. He will be an active participant in the prohibition campaign soon to be waged throughout the State.

The Legislature.

SENATE.

The Legislature yesterday elected G. Burnley Sinclair judge of the Corporation Court of Charlottesville, to succeed the late George W. Morris. Judge Sinclair was unanimously endorsed by the Charlottesville bar.

The battle for the unrestricted opening of right of way to railroad builders from Richmond to Washington began in earnest in the Senate yesterday, when Senate bill No. 41, the Sims measure, providing for the repeal of the statute restricting the paralleling of the tracks of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, was taken up for consideration as the special and continuing order. The matter caused a warm debate and several riders were proposed, but it went over till today.

Senator Lassiter introduced a joint resolution providing that a commission be appointed to investigate the tax laws of the State and to report to the next General Assembly a new system of taxation.

Senator Parks introduced a measure providing for pensions for disabled soldiers, sailors or marines who served during the war between the States in the service of Virginia.

The following bills were passed:

House bill to re-enact section 2848 of the code of Virginia, and to declare what equivalent, in city or town, to personal service of notice of protest.

HOUSE.

Senate bill, No. 28, providing for the working of convicts on the public roads, came up in the House as a special order yesterday afternoon. The bill extends the workings of the convict road law to men sentenced to terms as long as five years, whereas the present statute has a two-year limit. Mr. J. R. Caton offered an amendment, which sanctions the bill on this condition—"provided that no one whose punishment is fixed at more than two years shall be sentenced to labor on the public roads unless at the time of such sentence there shall then be in the penitentiary available to be worked under existing contracts with the State at least 350 prisoners." A motion to adjourn interrupted the debate and prevented a vote on the amendment.

The Anti-Saloon League won its first victory during the present session of the legislature yesterday when the House committee on general laws favorably reported the bill requiring express companies to deliver liquor only to the person to whom it is addressed. The proposed law provides a penalty for the refusal to fulfill the requirements of the law.

The House committee on courts of justice fixed next Tuesday as the date for hearing charges against Judge Blackstone, of the Eleventh district.

Mr. Adams offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling upon the Virginia Representatives and Senators in Congress to support a bill offered by Representative Flood, providing for the distribution of the surplus in the United States Treasury among the several States for road improvement.

Governor Swanson sent to the House a special message concerning the expenditure of the funds appropriated by the last General Assembly for entertainment, etc., on the part of the State at the Jamestown Exposition. The message sets out that $14,702.37 of the $30,000 appropriated is unexpended, and remains in the Treasury.

DEMANDS CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

The sessions of the Stoessel court-martial at St. Petersburg are nearing their end. Generals Stoessel, Fock and Reiss are being tried for the surrender of the Port Arthur fortress to the Japanese.

In his summing up yesterday General Gursky, the judge advocate, demanded that the court impose the death sentence upon Stoessel, Fock and Reiss—upon Stoessel as the responsible agent for the shameful surrender of the fortress and the cowardly ending of its glorious defense, and upon Fock and Reiss as the men who inspired and abetted him.

For General Smirnoff, who was declared guilty of not having taken measures to prevent the surrender, the Judge Advocate asked punishment of imprisonment at forced labor for four years. The Judge Advocate declared that General Reiss did not have the slightest claim to clemency; that he was a liar and a vainglorious boaster.

The Judge Advocate concluded as follows.

"The accused must receive the most severe penalty provided by law in order that the principle proclaimed in the time of Nicholas I., that the Russian flag once hoisted must never be lowered, be maintained."

CONGRESSIONAL.

In the Senate yesterday the urgent deficiency bill, as amended by the committee on appropriations, was passed with slight changes, after a debate consuming nearly three hours. There was much criticism of the alleged unauthorized expenditures of the Navy Department and the publication of a newspaper by the Canal Commission.

In the House Mr. Keifer reported from the committee on appropriations the general pension appropriation bill.

A resolution was agreed upon authorizing the committee on expenditures in the Agricultural Department to send for persons and papers in any investigation it may make within its jurisdiction.

The Indian appropriation bill was taken up by the committee of the whole.

NO TARIFF REVISION.

The present Congress will not appoint a tariff commission. This announcement, in substance, was made yesterday by Chairman Payne, of the house committee on ways and means, in the presence and with the tacit approval of Speaker Cannon, the occasion being a call upon those leaders by a tariff-revision delegation from various parts of the country, comprising representatives of many of the biggest manufacturing and industrial concerns in the United States.

Mr. Cannon said there could be no revision until after the coming election.

Senator Beveridge has introduced a bill calling for the appointment of such a commission, and today delivered a set speech to the Senate in support of the measure.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Ravages of Fire.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 5.—Fire attacked the huge plant of the John Roebling's Sons Company in this city this morning and fanned by an east wind soon assumed serious proportions. The fire raged in a portion of Hamilton avenue and the Delaware and Raritan canal. About two-thirds of the entire structural portion of the block was wiped out by the flames. The loss will reach $300,000 and more than 700 men will be thrown out of employment. At 9 o'clock the flames were still licking up the ruins, but at that hour the fire was under control.

Berlin, N. H., Feb. 5.—Aid from Portland, Me., and Lewiston, Me., saved Berlin from destruction by fire today, and although the conflagration that raged all night is still burning fiercely, the firemen are confident that they can confine it to the district that now lies in ruins. At 8 a. m. the damage was estimated at $450,000.

Stamford, Conn., Feb. 5.—A three-story frame building, one of twenty constituting the Givens Sanitarium, took fire at 7 a. m. and was destroyed.

Gibbstown, N. J., Feb. 5.—Fire was discovered at 3:45 this morning in the starch building of the Dupont Powder Works which is used for mixing and storage purposes. The night force of twenty men centered their efforts on saving surrounding property. At 4:20 an explosion occurred. Three buildings were destroyed. No loss of life. Damage $6,000. The shock was felt for fifty miles.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 5.—The old car barns at Trenton junction, formerly used by the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad as a paint shop, were burned this morning, entailing a loss of $15,000, including a $7,000 snow plow, which was destroyed.

Milwaukee, Wis., Feb. 5.—The First Church of Christ, Scientist, burned today. The loss is $100,000; insurance, $30,000.

Conditions in Portugal.

London, Feb. 5.—Portugal's new ministry announces the inauguration of a policy of liberality and pacification in the Official Gazette today, according to dispatches from Lisbon.

The decree adds that Franco's repressive measures are all withdrawn. Permission is given the newspaper suppressed under his regime to resume publication at once and a political amnesty, it is added, will be proclaimed without awaiting King Manuel's coronation.

The members of the Cabinet took the oath of office last night and a council immediately followed at which the decision was reached that it would be unwise to delay longer the return to constitutional government. Several fresh changes were made in the list of ministers who have, however, all been definitely chosen.

The mortuary chapel in which lie the bodies of the murdered King Carlo and Crown Prince Luiz was thrown open to the public today. The bodies will continue to lie in state until Friday night, the harbor forts and warships in the Tagus firing salutes at 15-minute intervals.

Lisbon, Feb. 5.—An anarchist organization with branches in every important city in Europe is now believed by secret service agents here to have been responsible for the assassination of King Carlos and Crown Prince Luiz.

Official denial has been issued of reports that an attempted assassination of one of the new cabinet members had been made.

The Thaw Case.

New York, Feb. 5.—Action to release Harry Thaw from the asylum for criminal insane at Matteawan was promised before the day is over by Attorneys Dan O'Reilly and A. Russell Peabody this morning. Just what their course will be they would not say. Habeas corpus proceedings were hinted at on an appeal to some up-State Supreme Court justice to amend Justice Dowling's commitment to send Thaw to some other institution.

New York, Feb. 5.—At a consultation of attorneys of Harry K. Thaw today it was decided to apply at once to the State Lunacy Commission to have Thaw transferred from the Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane, where he is now committed, to some private asylum. Attorneys Littleton, Peabody and O'Reilly attended the conference. The decision was reached after Thaw's case in its present condition had been thoroughly canvassed. Littleton opposed the proposition for a long time, holding that it would be better for him to stay where he is for the present.

Marriage Annulled.

London, Feb. 5.—The marriage between the Earl of Yarmouth and his wife, formerly Miss Alice Thaw, of Pittsburg, was annulled this afternoon. The hearing lasted but thirty minutes. Three witnesses were heard for the Countess. The Earl made no defense and was not present in person. It has leaked out that one-third of the Countess's fortune has been settled on the husband. A conference between the legal representatives of the Earl and his wife was held yesterday at which it was said the former proposed to let the case go by default on condition that ample financial provision was made for him. The Countess must now drop her title and resume her maiden name. Both she and the Earl can remarry if they desire. The case is regarded as a victory for both—for the Countess in obtaining the annulment decree; for the Earl in forcing a large financial settlement.

The Fleet.

Punta Arenas, Feb. 5.—The coaling of the American battleship squadron will be finished tonight and the fleet will steam from Punta Arenas harbor early Friday. Leading it as far as Valparaiso will be the Chilean cruiser Chacabuco, which greeted the visiting vessels on their arrival here.

Admiral Evans, who is still confined to his cabin by an attack of rheumatism, has not had much opportunity to enjoy himself at Punta Arenas, but his officers have been fairly overwhelmed by the receptions and entertainments in their honor. The sailors on shore leave have maintained the high standard already set for good behavior, and not a single unpleasant incident has marked the pleasure of their stay here.

Steamer Will Be Saved.

Amagansett, L. I., Feb. 5.—Tugs today reached the disabled British steamer Winifred, from which fifteen passengers were taken early this morning by a life-saving crew, and there is little doubt now that the steamer will be saved.

Public Printer Suspended.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 5.—The President today suspended Charles A. Stillings from duty of Public Printer, pending investigation of the charges of extravagance in his bureau. William S. Rossiter, chief clerk of the Census Bureau, is appointed temporarily to Stillings' place. Stillings is from Boston, and Rossiter from New York.

As a result of the congressional investigation into the affairs of the government printing office, Public Printer Stillings is very likely to definitely lose his official head. The President ordered an independent investigation into the affairs of the printing office, choosing for that work Dr. George Havenner, printing expert of the Department of Commerce and Labor. The Havenner report which is now in the President's hands fairly startled the executive. It showed that the cost of printing had jumped tremendously since Stillings took charge. This report will probably be sent to Congress by the President today. Chairman Landis, of the House sub-committee on printing, which is conducting the congressional inquiry, had a long conference with the President today, during which the whole situation was canvassed. The suspension of Mr. Stillings followed.

Explanatory of his action, the President sent a letter to Representative Landis, chairman of the House committee on printing, which has been investigating the government printing office explaining what caused his action. The President said in his letter to Mr. Landis that Mr. Havenner, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, who investigated the government printing officer severely condemned Mr. Stilling.

Russia and Persia.

Teheran, Persia, Feb. 5.—The government has been notified from St. Petersburg that 5,000 Russian troops have been ordered from the northern frontier to the Turko-Persian frontier, and that it may count on the Czar's full support in resisting Turkish aggressions.

Agonized appeals have been going for weeks from Teheran to the Russian capital representing that the Sultan has not only invaded Persian territory at several points, but that troops are being massed along the borders in numbers which plainly indicates a determination to settle the Turko-Persian boundary dispute by an immediate appeal to arms. Russia has been taken somewhat by surprise, and its military strength cannot match its opponents.

It is doubted, however, whether the Porte would dare to precipitate a conflict in which it is considered certain that the Czar must ultimately be the victor.

Russia is not only bound by treaty, but by national interest to support the Persian contention against Turkey.

Chicago Anarchists.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—In defiance of of Chief of Police Shippey's activity against the anarchists of this city, more than 400 members and sympathizers of the "Edelstradt group," an active anarchist organization, gathered last night to denounce all government, and city government in particular. Chicago socialist were also denounced in strong terms. William Nathansons was the only speaker of the evening. He inflamed the audience when he referred to the assassination of the king and the crown prince of Portugal and shouted "blood is the mother of liberty." Inflamatory circulars on which Roosevelt was referred to as "our crazy President" were distributed in the crowd by hundreds. They were signed by the "Anarchist Federation of America" and closed with the following appeal for direct action: "Away with all robbery, oppression and tyranny. Liberty for all and the products to the producer. Long live anarchy, direct action and the general strike."

The Fairfax Title.

London, Feb. 5.—King Edward has referred to the House of Lords a petition from "Albert Kirby Fairfax, claiming to be Lord Fairfax of Cameron in the peerage of Scotland, that his majesty will cause his right to the title and dignity of Lord Fairfax to be declared and established." Fairfax is a native American and is in business now in the United States, but his right to the use of the title he claims has never been questioned. It is included in Whitaker's list of the peerage and is recognized in English society. The declaration he seeks is necessary preliminary, however, to legal assumption of the dignity he seeks. If the peers grant the declaration, as is expected, Lord Fairfax will be eligible to election by the Scotch Lords to a seat as their representative in the House of Parliament

The Druce Claim.

London, February 5.—George Hollamby Druce's claim of the title and estates of the Dukedom of Portland is considered in legal circles to have collapsed completely with Miss Mary Robinson's confession that her evidence was wholly false. Next to the American, Robert Caldwell, Miss Robinson was the claimant's strongest witness. She professed to be the daughter of a Virginia planter, to have been induced by Charles Dickens to go to London as the fifth Duke of Portland's secretary and to have had the latter's own word for it that he masqueraded as Thomas Charles Druce, George Hollamby Druce's grandfather. The London police will submit at her trial the evidence they say they posess that she is not an American at all, but the daughter of an English policeman.

Nelson Again Bested.

Los Angeles, Feb. 5.—Battling Nelson's attempt to again rise to the top ring of the pugilistic ladder, a place he held before Joe Gans unmercifully beat him at Goldfield, received another set back last night when he was beaten in a ten round contest by "Boer" Unholz. While no decision was given it was the "Boers," fight all the way. Nelson, in his usual style, was the aggressor, but Unholz rained a fusilade of blows that landed on every spot of the Battler's anatomy from the waist line up. The "Boer," landed two clean blows to every one of the Dane's. With one or two exceptions the "Boer" had the better on points of execution of every round of the fight.

General Stoessel Sentenced to Death.

London, Feb. 5.—A news agency report here says Gen. Stoessel has been sentenced to death for surrendering Port Arthur to the Japanese. His trial has been pending for weeks and the prosecutor, summing up the case, asked a capital sentence against him yesterday.

Cold Weather and Suffering.

New York, Feb. 5.—With the continuance of zero weather New York is experiencing the worst cold "snap" in point of suffering among the poor since 1893 (panic year). Already conditions are such that hundreds of deaths will result from cold. While relief is promised by the weather man, it will require weeks before decided improvement can be wrought in the condition of the very poor. Any prolongation of the zero weather may raise the lists of sufferers from hundreds to thousands.

Dispatches from different points in New York tell of extremely cold weather.

Initiative and Referendum in Ohio.

Columbus, O., Feb. 5.—The initative and referendum for State and city legislation will probably be incorporated in the organic law of Ohio. The Ohio Senate last night adopted by a large majority the joint resolution to submit to the people the question of incorporating the initative and referendum in the constitution of Ohio. The lower branch of the general assembly will, in all probability, concur. If it does the amendment will be voted on at the coming fall election and probably passed.

MR. BRYAN'S SPEECH.

William Jennings Bryan, speaker before the Civic Forum at Carnegie Hall, New York, last-night, attacked in turn monopolists, stock exchange gambling, and predatory wealth.

The stock exchange came in for the hardest pounding. Mr. Bryan characterized the game there as being played with loaded dice and marked cards—1 per cent legitimate and 99 per cent gambling. There is no form of swindling unknown and unpracticed there. To him it is a surprise that the 80,000,000 of people in this country do not rise in their honest wrath and drive these New York Stock Exchange gamblers either into honesty or out the country.

Measured by the number of suicides caused, Monte Carlo is an innocent pleasure resort compared with the New York Stock Exchange, and when it comes to the amount of money changing hands and the effect on other people, the notorious island gambling resort is still more insignificant in comparison.

Mr. Bryan put the monopolist on the par with the highwayman who points the revolver at his victim's head and says: "Money or your life," and the lawyer who helps him to keep out of jail is no better than the man who aids the highwayman to escape.

Mr. Bryan spoke of the inequality of taxation, defined honest securities and alluded to many issues now before the nation.

Carnegie Hall was well filled, but the audience was far from being of the regular Bryan type. There was only one real demonstration and that was when Bryan called upon the country to march 80,000,000 strong against the stock exchange.

Edward M. Shepard presided. He described Mr. Bryan as a man who had done his work so well that, although the White House is occupied by a political adversary, he inspires and controls the political ideals of the White House almost as he does the gatherings of his own party.

The Nebraskan rather repudiated this introduction, and took up the cudgels for his friend, Mr. Roosevelt, as an independent thinker.

BURIED UNDER FALLING WALLS

Twenty firemen, eleven of whom were injured and removed to a hospital, were buried under two falling floors in the five-story building at 43 and 45 Worth street, New York, which was gutted by fire yesterday. The men had been ordered into the building long after the fire was under control to "wash down and open up," and they were hardly at work when the second and third floors gave way, and all hands were precipitated to the ground floor and buried under piles of debris.

The report of the crash as the floors collapsed resounded above the puffing of the engines and firemen dropped their pipe lines and dashed into the building to rescue their comrades.

Nineteen men were taken out alive and one fireman, a youngster named Thomas P. Eglinton, who joined Truck Company No. 10 six months ago, is believed to have been pinned under a big safe that was carried from the third floor to half way between the ground floor and the cellar.

THE COLD WEATHER.

The weather was cold again last night and the mercury in the thermometer at an early hour this morning was down to 15°.

The river is still full of ice, and nothing but steamers move up or down.

A dispatch from Williamsport, Md., says the Potomac is frozen, for the first time for some years, owing to the unusually cold weather of the past few days. The river is completely closed at the Two Locks, below Williamsport, and also at other places, but for long stretches the channel is open, with a deep fringe of thick ice along both shores. Big Pool on the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, is frozen over. Hundreds of tons of ice, ranging from six to eight inches in thickness, are being cut and stored.

Snow began to fall shortly before noon.

MONUMENT ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Washington Monument Association was held this morning, Mr. E E. Downham presiding. A plan was discussed looking to the purchase of the Shooter's Hill and Spring Park properties, converting part of the land into a park and erecting thereon a monument to Washington. The secretary, Mr. A. J. Wedderburn, was directed to make a canvass and ascertain how many lots in the property could be sold and to urge citizens to buy these lots, or to make contributions toward securing a park for the city and the erection of a Washington monument. The two pieces of property named comprise about 140 acres, and the plan proposed is to sell one-half of the land for building lots and to convert the remaining 70 acres into a park.

FINED TEN DOLLARS EACH.

A soldier, who gave his name as Thomas Jones, and John Howard, a civilian, presumably from Washington, while in a drunken condition entered the waiting room of the electric railway at Prince and Royal streets last night. They remained there until all the trains had left and then became disorderly, defying the employees who remonstrated with them. Officers Henderson, Sampson and Garvey appeared at an opportune time and conducted the two men to the station house. The accused were brought before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning and fined $10 each. It is said that the soldier's name is Charles Weber and that he is attached to the hospital corps.

DISCHARGES AT NAVY YARD.

Six hundred and fifty machinists employed at the Washington navy yard have been discharged recently for lack of work, and it is said that the discharges will continue until 800 have been dropped from the pay rolls. Five hundred were put out of work last week, while Monday afternoon and night 150 more were notified that their services would no longer be required.

A resolution will be offered at the meeting of the Columbia Lodge of Machinists in Washington tonight, asking that the Navy Department furlough each of the employees for ten days without pay, in order to stay further dismissals on account of lack of funds.

BANQUET.

The committee having in charge the first annual banquet of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce have fixed the 11th, next Tuesday, as the date. Today an acceptance to an invitation was received from the president of the Southern Railway, Mr. W. W. Finley, as were assurances from the District Commissioners, Senators from Virginia and several Congressmen. The banquet will be held at McBurney's Hall at 8:30 o'clock.

Frank Carlin, Mr. Geo. B. Carlin, Miss Mary Carlin, Mrs. E. J. Evans. Mrs. M. W. O'Brien, Mrs. Sevier. and a friend $1.00 each.

DEATH OF A VETERAN.

Eugene Blackford, esq., of Baltimore county, after a protracted illness died yesterday evening at his home at Sudbrook Park, Md. A gallant officer in Lee's army and lieutenant-colonel of the 5th Alabama infantry, he was a native of Virginia though a resident of Maryland for about 40 years. He was a younger brother of Dr. L. M. Blackford, of the Episcopal High School, near this city.

UNFOUNDED RUMOR.

The Alexandria Hospital ambulance went to the electric railway station at Prince and Royal streets early last night, and later proceeded to the union passenger station where it met a train on which was a sick lady from Accotink who had made arrangements to enter the hospital. The appearance of the ambulance on the streets gave rise to a report that a man had been run over by a train.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Thomas Jones and John Howard, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $10 each.

Moses Turner, colored, charged with assulting a white boy, was fined $1.

MR. MACKEY'S DENIAL.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 4, 1908.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

I know you do not wish to do me an injustice and I therefore beg that you will publish this letter in your newspaper, in correction of an article appearing in your paper in substance that I had spoken of Captain Beattie in disrespectful terms to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Mr. Capers.

I never uttered the name of Mr. Beattie to Commissioner Capers in my life. I never uttered an unkind word of Captain Beattie to any person in my life. I never saw Captain Beattie in my life, and when I went to see the Commissioner of Internal Revenue I did not know whether Captain Beattie was an old man, or a young man, or anything whatever about him. I talked to Commissioner Capers about the general policy of the government in letting off persons convicted of violations of the U. S. internal revenue laws with the mere payment of the special internal revenue tax of $25, with a view to having the Department of Justice instruct the United States attorneys to prosecute persons violating the laws, so that a fine or imprisonment would result, as no person will take out a U. S. internal revenue license when he knows if caught selling without license no punishment is to be inflicted or fine imposed.

I also talked to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue about the government having no facilities for the detection of violations of the internal revenue laws, and I told him that I had frequently employed detectives at considerable expense and had made out a great many cases against men who were engaged in the illegal sale of liquor, but that the county was too poor to do the work properly, and that if the government would take up the matter and employ men to detect violations of the revenue laws in my county I thought a great deal of good could be accomplished. I told him also that my experience had been that the government was glad to use evidence procured at great cost to the county, but had done no original work in that line to my knowledge. Of course I knew that Captain Beattie could no more accomplish anything by playing detective than I could myself, and what I said was not intended as a reflection upon him, though I can see how the Commissioner of Revenue might have put that construction upon my remarks. The fact is, I never made any complaint or criticism of any one. Thereafter I got a very insulting letter signed by Captain Beattie, and I inquired of several gentlemen in my county as to who Captain Beattie was, and from what I learned he is a very excellent man, and an old Confederate soldier with an enviable record.

I immediately wrote him ignoring his offensive letter to me, and expressing my regret about the matter having taken the turn that it did. I have tried to do my duty as an official without fear or favor, and the fact that I was elected four years ago by but two votes, and was re-elected for four years beginning January 1st, 1908, by three hundred and one majority, ought to convince any one that the people of Alexandria county who know me better than any people in the world, have confidence in my truthfulness and integrity.

I am taking no interest in politics, and do not expect to be a candidate for any office, and I have no axes to grind and no favors to ask of any one, and for that reason I cannot understand why the Alexandria papers should constantly nag at me, and publish matters of small moment to the public with a display of feeling and unjust criticism that is not warranted by any facts.

Sincerely yours,

CRANDAL MACKEY

Attorney for Commonwealth.

[The Gazette had no intention of doing any injustice to Mr. Mackey, but the article published last Saturday in reference to him and Captain Beattie was based upon statements which were being made broadcast in Alexandria.]

Alexandria Gazette
WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEB. 5, 1908.

Appreciated the Beautiful.

That it is not always well to put on one's dowdiest garments when one goes to visit the poor is the moral of a story told in an English magazine recently. There were two philanthropists, according to the tale, one a professional and the other an amateur. The professional had arranged to take the amateur to a gathering of slum dwellers in the east end of London. At the appointed hour the amateur, who happens to be a duchess and a great beauty, appeared at the house of her friend, a dazzling apparition in court dress, tiara and jewels. "Oh, my dear," gasped the professional, falling helplessly into the nearest chair, "don't you know that we are going to one of the lowest and most squalid slums? I can't promise that you will bring any of that back with you." But the beauty only laughed. "That's all right," she said. "I quite understand you. But poor people love beautiful things. Their children especially are captivated with fine dresses and feathers. Just wait and you will see!" And the professional did see. Those poor, half starved, half naked slum dwellers had eyes for no one but the dazzling young beauty who had done them the infinite honor of coming to see them in her most beautiful frock and jewels.

Not Much News.

In the summer of 1903 an exploring expedition set out from Cook inlet, Alaska, in an attempt to climb Mount McKinley, the highest peak on the American continent. They went in with a pack of cayuses through a hundred miles of tundra and then struggled for weeks over glaciers and through terrible hardships, to emerge at last on the Chulitna river, down which they rafted to civilization, as represented by Cook inlet.

As they came in, worn, ragged, almost dead from exposure and hunger, a tall old man strolled upshore with four white men's dogs, says Robert Dunn in "The Shameless Diary of an Explorer." They asked him the news of the world.

"Waal, yer know the pope's dead," he drawled, "and the cardinals held a sort of convention and elected a new pope.

"Roosevelt he's agreed to complain to the czar of Rooshia about them massacreed Jews, and some one's killed that Queen Dragon of Servia trying to jump her claim to the throne. And Rooshia's going to fight the Japs. The' ain't much happened this summer."

Murdered by a Statue.

The death of Kenith, the half mythical king of Scotland, was one of the most curious and remarkable in history, if it may be called a historical fact. It seems that Kenith had slain Cruthlintus, a son, and Malcolm Duffus, the king and brother of Fennella. She, to be revenged, caused Wiltus, the most ingenious artist of the time, to fashion a statue filled with automatic springs and levers. Finished and set up this brazen image was an admirable work of art. In its right hand Wiltus placed a ewer and in the left an apple of pure gold finely set with diamonds and other precious stones. To touch this apple was to court death. It was so arranged that any one guilty of such vandalism would be immediately riddled with arrows shot from loopholes in the statute's body. Kenith was invited to see the wonder and, kinglike (and just as Fennella hoped), tried to pluck the imitation fruit. He was instantly riddled with poisoned arrows, dying where he fell.

Still Ahead.

A congressman says he was riding in a smoking car on a little one track road and in the seat in front of him sat a jewelry drummer. He was one of those wide awake, never-let-any-one-get-the-better-of-him style of men. Presently the train stopped to take on water, and the conductor neglected to send back a flagman. A limited express, running at a rate of ten miles an hour, came along and bumped the rear end of the first train. The drummer was lifted from his seat and pitched head first against the seat ahead. His silk hat was jammed clear down over his ears. He picked himself up and settled back in his seat. No bones had been broken. Then he pulled off his hat, drew a long breath and, straightening up, said: "Hully gee! Well, they didn't get by us anyway!"

Got His Wish.

At the height of their nightly quarrel the other day Mrs. Blank choked back a sob and said reproachfully:

"I was reading one of your old letters today, James, and you said in it that you would rather live in endless torment with me than in bliss by yourself."

"Well, I got my wish," Blank growled.

The Dolphin Violin.

The Dolphin violin was so named on account of the beauty of the wood, the back of the instrument resembling the color of a dolphin. It was made by Stradivarius in 1714, and it is considered the most beautiful violin in the world. It is owned by an Englishman and is valued at £5,000.—Musical Home Journal.

NELSONVILLE M. O. BUBBLE.

Startling Results of an Investigation by State Examiners.

Under the heading "This Town Is Easy Pickin'" a Nelsonville (O.) paper reprints from the Columbus Citizen the following account of the results of an investigation of that town by the state examiners:

"The examiners say that Auditor John Lax looked after his private affairs and that Treasurer Aumiller signed both his own name and that of the auditor to all vouchers.

"The police department kept no record of arrests, the fire department no record of fires, and the sinking fund had no minutes.

"Mayor James Sharp did the plumbing for the city, Councilman Price sold all the supplies, and Member of Board of Service Silcott furnished the coal to the light plant.

"Councilman Emmett Keenan is also city engineer, and his office kept no records of plats, and nothing could be found out as to the cost of street improvements."

The examiners also reported that the electric lights cost Nelsonville $88.14 a year. When asked for more detailed information a citizen of high standing wrote:

"Figures of Examiner Smith do not include depreciation, interest, insurance or water. Arcs are supposed to be 2,000 candlepower burning on moonlight schedule. Few nights if any pass without some lights out, and often all are out the entire night. I understand that the local electric light company agreed to furnish the same lights for $60 per year each, with a percentage off for outage.

"When the waterworks were operated alone the net profit per year was about $900. Since the light plant was started the waterworks have run in debt and this in the face of the fact that they are pumping less water at higher prices than before, the advance in price amounting to about $1,000 per year."

"ESTIMATE" VERSUS BID.

Curious and Instructive Experience of Ashland, Wis.

Last January Ashland, Wis., voted in favor of installing a municipal electric light plant. Votes were secured on the basis of an "estimate" that the complete plant would cost $80,000, this "estimate" being made by Professor W. C. Kirchoffer of the University of Wisconsin, who the lighting committee stated had been employed by over forty cities of Wisconsin as a consulting engineer. This committee thus continued its report:

"After thoroughly going over the estimates the committee can state that the outside cost of this entire proposition, including everything, will be $80,000, divided as follows: Concrete and earth dam, spillway and power house, $19,850; turbines and electrical machinery at power house, $15,430; electric transmission line, $4,830; substation building and equipment, $5,400; arc lighting system, $8,075; incandescent lighting system, $15,680; land necessary for dam and flowage rights, $7,500; engineering plans, superintendence, incidentals, $3,725; total, $80,000.

"In every case these figures represent the highest possible cost for the work, as it has been the intention of this committee to let the people of Ashland understand whatever estimate is made that, in fact, the actual cost will be under rather than above."

Before the election the mayor published a letter from "one of the concerns the committee has been in touch with" (name withheld) agreeing to erect a complete plant for $50,000, to be in operation on or before the 1st of July. This has not been mentioned by the mayor recently, for when the city advertised for bids the only bid received was for $130,000, and this did not include transformers, meters or anything pertaining to commercial lighting except a power circuit.

The "pure food law" is designed by the government to protect the public from injurious ingredients in both foods and drugs. It is beneficial both to the public and to the conscientious manufacturer. Ely's Cream Balm, a successful remedy for cold in the head, nasal catarrh, hay fever, etc., containing no injurious drugs, meets fully the requirements of the new law, and that fact is prominently stated on every package. It contains none of the injurious drugs which are required by law to be mentioned on the label. Hence you can use it safely.

Spoiled Their Waltzing.

In her memoirs Mme. de Boigne gives some interesting glimpses of English social life. For instance, she writes:

"In 1816 no young English lady ventured to waltz. The Duke of Devonshire returned from a tour in Germany and observed one evening at a large ball that a woman was never seen to better advantage than when waltzing. I do not know whether he was anxious to play a trick, but he repeated his assertion several times. It was passed from mouth to mouth, and at the next ball all the young ladies were waltzing. The duke admired them greatly, said that it was delightful and gave proper animation to a ball. He then added carelessly that he, at any rate, had decided never to marry a lady who waltzed. It was to the Duchess of Richmond and at Carlton House that he saw fit to make this revelation. The poor duchess, the most clumsy of matchmaking mammas, nearly fell off her chair with horror. She repeated the statement to her neighbors, who passed it on, and consternation spread from seat to seat. The young ladies continued to waltz with clear consciences. The old ladies were furious, but the unfortunate dance was concluded. Before the end of the evening the good Duchess of Richmond was able to announce that her daughters felt an objection to waltzing which no persuasion of hers could ever overcome. Some few girls of more independence continued to waltz, but the majority gave it up."

After the Honeymoon.

"Pa," inquired a small boy on the Oakland boat, "what's a simoon?"

"Huh!" grunted the man without looking from his paper. "Simoon's sand storm on the dessert, dreaded by travelers."

"And, pa, what's a honeymoon?"

"Honeymoon's rice storm on a train, enjoyed by travelers."

"Then a honeymoon's something like a simoon, ain't it, pa?"

"Guess so. Keep quiet. Don't ask so many fool questions. Look at the sea gulls."

"But ain't they a good deal alike, pa—simoons and honeymoons?"

"Ugh, huh, both full of hot air! Most honeymoons become simoons in a few years. When the honey's gone the sigh's left."

"Pa, were you ever on a honeymoon?"

"Percy, if you don't stop pestering me with questions I'll never bring you over to the city again."

"Well, ma said she had a honeymoon, and it was like a dream, and all the rest of it's been a nightmare."—San Francisco Chronicle.
